What is Jornaleros Week?

College age students are invited to participate in a week of Service in the Las Cruces, NM area. We will focus in helping those in need as we learn more about the rich traditions of the Hispanic/Latino community.

Students will learn about:

- How poverty impacts the life style of people
- Have an opportunity to see and hear about Border issues.
- What can we do as faithful / Responsible citizens.
- Discerning God's call to be builders of His Kingdom.

This is a program of the Hispanic Ministry Office of the Diocese of Las Cruces In partnership with Our Lord of Mercy Parish in Hatch, NM .

Why Jornaleros?

In Spanish Jornaleros is the name given to a person that works and gets paid each day for their labor. Usually is a field worker or someone that works in construction. We invite Young Adults to feel that they too are active Jornaleros of the Kingdom of God. We are invited each day to do our part to bring forth the mercy, hope and love to those around us. Together with Jesus, Young Adults, Jóvenes, can make the Kingdom of God present.

How Much Does it Cost?

The week costs $250.00 / person. Participants are responsible for all transportation, traveling meals, snacks, spending money and Lunch during the Border Pilgrimage Day.

How Do I Register?

All Students/Participants need to fill out a registration form from the diocese of Las Cruces, sign a code of conduct and fill out an emergency release form.
